

MINI-GREEK CLASS AT CCS

CCS' Mini-Greek class--"Messing Around with Greek" is a 15-minute class at the end of the lunch period (12:30-12:45 PM) on Thursday class days. Students of all ages begin by learning the Greek alphabet and being introduced to how the Christian Church uses Greek letters every day. Beginning with the actual text of John 1:1, the students then are introduced to hundreds of everyday English words which are derived from 55 major Greek words. The only requirement is enthusiasm and attentiveness on the part of the student! You must register for this class. It is open to all students and is free of charge. This class will be offered only to a minimum of six students who are not otherwise involved in Certamen or Memory Period during this same 15-minute period. Materials fee: $2. Please contact Susan Schearer at sscheare@ntelos.net for additional information.
